6   Board unless the employer certifies that the employer does 7   not possess the capacity to produce the list in the required
8   form. Not later than 9 months after the date of enactment 9   of the Protecting the Right to Organize Act of 2021, the 15   net access, email, cellular telephones, or other company 16   equipment) of the employer of such employee to engage 17   in activities protected under section 7 if such employer has 18   given such employee access to such devices and systems

19   in the course of the work of such employee, absent a com-20   pelling business rationale for denying or limiting such 21   use.”.

11 individual or labor organization, which has been certified
12 or is being recognized by their employer as the bargaining 13 representative, is no longer a representative as defined in 14 section 9(a), the Board shall investigate such petition and 15 if it has reasonable cause to believe that a question of rep-16 resentation affecting commerce exists shall provide for an 17 appropriate hearing upon due notice. Such hearing may 18 be conducted by an officer or employee of the regional of-19 fice, who shall not make any recommendations with re-

19 cast in favor of representation by the labor organization,
20 the Board shall certify the labor organization as the rep-
21 resentative of the employees in such unit and shall issue
22 an order requiring the employer of such employees to col-23 lectively bargain with the labor organization in accordance

1 under section 10(c) of this Act, without need for a deter-
2 mination of an unfair labor practice.

3       “(5)(A) If the Board finds that, in an election under 4 paragraph (1), a majority of the valid votes cast in a unit
5 appropriate for purposes of collective bargaining have not

18 out ordering a new election, set aside the election and cer-
19 tify the labor organization as the representative of the em-
20 ployees in such unit and issue an order requiring the em-

25               which the petition is filed—

1           “(1) the employer has recognized a labor orga-

3 this Act;

4           “(2) the labor organization and employer en-

1 labor practice charge alleging a violation of section 8(a)

12 (3) by inserting after subsection (c) the fol-
13 lowing:

14 “(d)(1) Each order of the Board shall take effect 15 upon issuance of such order, unless otherwise directed by 16 the Board, and shall remain in effect unless modified by 17 the Board or unless a court of competent jurisdiction
18 issues a superseding order.

19 “(2) Any person who fails or neglects to obey an 20 order of the Board shall forfeit and pay to the Board a 21 civil penalty of not more than $10,000 for each violation,
22 which shall accrue to the United States and may be recov-
23 ered in a civil action brought by the Board to the district
24 court of the United States in which the unfair labor prac-25 tice or other subject of the order occurred, or in which

1 such person or entity resides or transacts business. No ac-
2 tion by the Board under this paragraph may be made until 3 30 days following the issuance of an order. Each separate 4 violation of such an order shall be a separate offense, ex-
5 cept that, in the case of a violation in which a person fails
6 to obey or neglects to obey a final order of the Board, 7 each day such failure or neglect continues shall be deemed 8 a separate offense.

9       “(3) If, after having provided a person or entity with 10 notice and an opportunity to be heard regarding a civil 11 action under subparagraph (2) for the enforcement of an 12 order, the court determines that the order was regularly 13 made and duly served, and that the person or entity is 14 in disobedience of the same, the court shall enforce obedi-
15 ence to such order by an injunction or other proper proc-16 ess, mandatory or otherwise, to—

17           “(A) restrain such person or entity or the offi-
18 cers, agents, or representatives of such person or en-19 tity, from further disobedience to such order; or 20           “(B) enjoin such person or entity, officers,

9                 “(2) No objection that has not been urged before the 10          Board, its member, agent, or agency shall be considered 11          by a court, unless the failure or neglect to urge such objec-12          tion shall be excused because of extraordinary cir-13          cumstances. The findings of the Board with respect to 14          questions of fact if supported by substantial evidence on 15          the record considered as a whole shall be conclusive. If 16          either party shall apply to the court for leave to adduce 17          additional evidence and shall show to the satisfaction of 18          the court that such additional evidence is material and 19          that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to ad-20          duce such evidence in the hearing before the Board, its 21          member, agent, or agency, the court may order such addi-
22          tional evidence to be taken before the Board, its member, 23          agent, or agency, and to be made a part of the record.
24          The Board may modify its findings as to the facts, or 25          make new findings, by reason of additional evidence so

1 taken and filed, and it shall file such modified or new find-2 ings, which findings with respect to questions of fact if 3 supported by substantial evidence on the record considered 4 as a whole shall be conclusive, and shall file its rec-
5 ommendations, if any, for the modification or setting aside 6 of its original order. Upon the filing of the record with 7 it the jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its 8 judgment and decree shall be final, except that the same
9 shall be subject to review by the appropriate United States
10 court of appeals if application was made to the district
11 court, and by the Supreme Court of the United States
12 upon writ of certiorari or certification as provided in sec-13 tion 1254 of title 28, United States Code.”; and

- 6     charged that an employer has engaged in an unfair labor
- 7     practice within the meaning of paragraph (1), (3) or (4)
- 8     of section 8(a) that significantly interferes with, restrains,
- 9     or coerces employees in the exercise of the rights guaran-
- 10    teed under section 7, or involves discharge or other serious
- 11    economic harm to an employee, the preliminary investiga-
- 12    tion of such charge shall be made forthwith and given pri-
- 13    ority over all other cases except cases of like character
- 14    in the office where it is filed or to which it is referred.
- 15    If, after such investigation, the officer or regional attorney
- 16    to whom the matter may be referred has reasonable cause
- 17    to believe such charge is true and that a complaint should
- 18    issue, such officer or attorney shall bring a petition for
- 19    appropriate temporary relief or restraining order as set
- 20    forth in paragraph (1). The district court shall grant the
- 21    relief requested unless the court concludes that there is

- 23    the merits of the Board’s claim.”; and
- 24                         (2) by repealing subsections (k) and (l).

24 for each such violation.

25 (c) CIVIL PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS.—

1           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Any employer who commits 2       an unfair labor practice within the meaning of sec-

6       that, with respect to an unfair labor practice within 7       the meaning of paragraph (3) or (4) of section 8(a)
8       or a violation of section 8(a) that results in the dis-

10      harm to an employee, the Board shall double the 11      amount of such penalty, to an amount not to exceed 14      violation.

15           “(2) CONSIDERATIONS.—In determining the 16       amount of any civil penalty under this subsection,
17       the Board shall consider—

5 for a violation described in this subsection may also 6 be assessed against any director or officer of the em-7 ployer who directed or committed the violation, had 8 established a policy that led to such a violation, or

22 lier, provided that the Board has not filed a petition
23 under section 10(j) of this Act prior to the expira-
24 tion of the 60-day period. No relief under this sub-

20 ages in accordance with paragraph (4); and

21           “(F) any other relief authorized by section

5                 with maintaining the action.

6                 “(4) PUNITIVE DAMAGES.—In awarding puni-
7                 tive damages under paragraph (2)(E), the court
